COLLIER'S NATIONAL WEEKLY

We elsewhere describe the Collier Plant. A word now about the Weekly and its policy.

It is at once the peril and the shame of the hour, that the American Press has so widely become venal.

Dripping with bribes, the unclean fingers of the Predatory Interests have silenced many an editorial utterance once free and independent.

But thank God, all over the land yet remain journals whose editors, like Fabius of old neither the lure of gold can seduce nor the threat of power deter.

Chief among these is Collier's National Weekly, a bold and eloquent advocate of the rights of the people against the marauding Trusts; a journal that stands for civic righteousness in every department of the government, municipal, state and national.

Because it is fair, fearless and just in its non-partisan views, it has come to be a great National force in politics and in government. Its merciless exposure of Ballinger drove out of Taft's cabinet that tool of the Trusts seeking to despoil the nation's rich Alaskan domain.

Since Juvenal and Junius "lashed rascals naked through the world," no such whipping has ever been bestowed as when it spread clean across two of its editorial pages in big, scare-head letters, the blistering legend "Richard Achilles Ballinger SHYSTER", and dared him sue for libel!

Then, too, Collier has pilloried so many of the dopes and knaves engaged in poisoning the Nations food, drink and drugs that the whole hateful harpy tribe are in dread of its damnably just and savage indictments that so often have sent them scuttling into their holes.

But what of the master mind and conscience editorial back of all this superb role of public usefulness and philanthropy?

Well, a simple, modest, courteous gentleman—"Norman Hapgood, editor" runs his brevet—who bears his high station as quietly as did the common-place Grant his at Appomattox or the plain Lincoln his in the White House.

Of all the surprising sights the writer saw that day in Collier's—this most impressed him

ARCHBOLD'S IDIOTIC BOMB

No political bomb ever thrown has proved so ruinously disastrous to the thrower as Archbold's bomb.

It will have three important but unexpected results:

- 1.—It will help elect Mr. Roosevelt.
- 2.—It will result finally in the noisome Penrose being kicked out of the Senate, and possibly others as well.
- 3.—It is the hardest blow ever delivered against the chief of the Predatory Trusts, Standard Oil—this foolish admission under oath of its president that he misappropriated $125,000.00 of the stockholders money in a corrupt attempt to bribe the President of the United States.

TRADE MARK

For

RHEUMATISM

Nearly everybody has had a touch of it at some time.

MOST people imagine that rheumatism is a disease of the muscles and ligaments, but it is not. Rheumatism is a blood disease pure and simple. It is caused by the accumulation of impurities in the blood which in time are carried to various parts of the body. To get rid of rheumatism we must first cleanse the blood.

There is nothing in the world like the old fashioned home remedies. Your parents and grandparents used iron, magnesium and sulphur. This is exactly what I. M. S. is. Iron to build up the tissues, magnesium to regulate the digestive organs, and sulphur to cleanse the blood.

If you are bothered with rheumatism, catarrh, stomach and liver troubles I. M. S. will help you wonderfully as it has hundreds of others. If taken regularly, it will eliminate the ailment absolutely.

I. M. S. contains no dope or alcohol. It is a natural strength building tonic. Bottle contains one pint, which is one month's treatment.

MIDDLETOWN'S FINE TAILOR

Do the people of Middletown know that they have a first-class tailor in their midst who does fine work for very moderate prices? Well they have, and his name is "Mr. Miller—the Tailor," on East Main street!

Some of our best citizens have had suits made by him, among others, to whom by their courteous permission he refers, is Mr. John C. Crouch, Cashier of the Citizens Bank, who says he never in all his life has had a suit that fitted him better than the one Mr. Miller made him. Mr. Purnell McWhorter also expresses his satisfaction at the fine goods and fit Mr. Miller gave him.

Mrs. Crouch also kindly allows Mr. Miller to tell the ladies of Middletown how much she is pleased with the handsome, perfect-fitting garment made after the latest style for her by Mr. Miller.

Then you should see the fine lot of samples of the famous Detour all-wool goods, from which his customers can choose their suits, and which he says he can make to order for over one third less than the prices usually charged by others, or by tailor.

The Transcript scribe has examined these goods, and they certainly are fine and the prices very low. Not only is Mr. Miller an old and experienced tailor, but being here in town, gives his customers as many "try-ons" as may be necessary to insure a perfect fit. Mr. Miller also does a little of the pressing, scouring, altering and repairing of all kinds of garments for ladies and gentlemen at reasonable prices.

THE DEVIL'S APOLOGY

Our readers will have to be indulgent with us in this issue if The Transcript falls below its wonted high standard of accomplishment, for the Editor-in-chief and two of our talented young lady typists are off on their vacation; the Agricultural Editor is sick; our funny man's half dead with the blues;—not that the Editor heard a gossip say—that hot weather's a queer time to be getting' mittens;—while our Society editor is fairly tearing his hair because there's so little doing;—no funny murders, no social kick-ups, no marriages and "sick lies"—just nothing at all!

So the devil foreman and me, that's the line, are running the paper the best we know how. But the editor-in-chief, after he gets tired breathing the sad sea waves, and fighting green-headed flies and mosquitoes at Dover's, and is wearied of being for the 40th time the stock jokes of the native humorists and the ancient and impossible fish yarns the local Isaac Walton tell—and generally bored to death with the bucolic serenity, not to say downright lonesomeness of that "quiet neighborhood," will no doubt like him back to the stirring scenes of Middletown and tell us all about his varied adventures and doings—narrate a few fish lies of his own;—so that even if the news by next week doesn't get a move on itself, he will have enough to stock the paper proper. So we beg of our indulgent readers a charitable survey of our work—for it is just true that we've had a "devil" of a time doing it.

Yours till next week

Every Evening's War Pictures

"The Civil War Through the Camera," now just completed in 16 parts of 24 pages, at 10 cents each by Every Evening, not only teaches history in the most graphic, pictorial manner, but it also teaches the great moral truth that the world is slowly but surely learning, after centuries of selfish acts of blood and treasure—the hateful folly of War.

The frank brutality of these truthful pictures of battle, field strewn with corpses—God's children destroyed by Him to live happy, useful lives, shot down in a moment—is a revelation to make all who see them, especially the young, hate foolish, wicked war. All the false glamor and sheen of war is stripped off, and one beholds here only the naked, revolting truth that "War indeed is Hell!" as the great Shakespeare said.

Peninsula Horticultural Society

The premium list of the Peninsula Horticultural Society has been issued, offering liberal prizes, especially for apples, to be awarded at the Annual Exhibition, to be held in Wilmington, Delaware, January 11-15, 1913. The best collection of apples will receive a prize of $300 in cash; the second best collection, $200 in cash, and the third, $100 in cash. All of the leading commercial varieties of apples will be shown in boxes and each variety will receive a first prize of $10, a second prize of $5 and a third prize of $3. Prizes of $2, $1 and fifty cents are also given for the best varieties exhibited as plates of five specimens each. Rules have been adopted governing the awarding of prizes. The list may be had by applying to Wesley Webb, Secretary Dyer, Delaware.
